THEY ALL CAME HOME!

Grand Success — Over 15,000 People Present.

Everything was in readiness last Thursday, and the Home-Coming Re-Union opened.

Hon. W. H. Miller, president of the Cape County Savings Bank at Jackson, and president of the Southeast Missouri Trust Company at the Cape, made the address of welcome. Mr. Miller made a practical, proper and brief address. As is his way, the remarks came from an honest head and liberal mind. He made everybody feel at home.

The address was responded to by Senator A. S. Oliver of Caruthersville, who made a very excellent address, and paid neat compliments to his home county, and especially its county seat.

The old-fashioned spelling took place in the court house on the afternoon of the first day. The building was so full you could scarcely look in. R. T. Reid, A. R. Byrd, H. J. LaTour, Dr. W. J. Miller, Jacob Doyle, Dr. J. A. Horn, Mrs. Ben Ruff, S. r., Mrs. D. M. Corvar, Mrs. Joe Holley are some of those who spelled. The prize was awarded to Dr. J. A. Horn for standing up the longest. Dr. Horn also won the prize for the oldest bachelor present. Mr. O. W. Burford—in blue book language—gave out the words.

The trades parade Thursday and Saturday morning was good, but not as large as it should have been. The floats of J. W. McCombs, Jr., Daniel Klein and Priest & Behrens were very tasteful and were representative of each respective business.

A balloon ascension occurred each day, but on Friday and Saturday the leap was not performed, and the man attached to the balloon came to the ground with it, something being wrong with conditions.

The most striking thing in the parade was the little wagon drawn by a Shetland pony. The occupants of the wagon were "Jack" Miller, little daughter of J. B. Miller, and Clarence Wesley Grant, little son of Collector Grant. The wagon was rigged as a "prairie schooner," and was filled with hay and equipped with a camping outfit. Upon the canvas was inscribed: "Jackson Home-Comers or Bust!"

The man who performed the wire act from the court house dome fell Friday night, but was not seriously hurt.

The athletic feats at the Gladish park each day drew immense crowds.

Friday was Woodmen Day. Neighbor I. S. Page addressed the Woodmen at the park. On account of the late arrival of the Houck train, the speaking did not begin till 12 o'clock, and the crowd was small. Neighbor Page made a very practical and encouraging speech, and gave a glowing report of Woodcraft, Daisy Camp No. 5930 won the banner for having the greatest per cent in line. Their membership is 44, and 38 of this number were here. This camp also won the $15 for rope-pulling, and $10 for the hurdle race.

Perry Flynn, son of J. D. Flynn, of Richwood, Ill., was the youngest Woodman in attendance. He joined last October at the age of 18.

Conservative estimate would put the crowd each day at from ten thousand to twelve thousand people. Estimating from those registered, from the number fed at the hotels, and from the number of rigs at the livery stables and wagon yards, there were about 25 per cent more people here this year than last year.

The town was certainly put in good order to receive the visitors, and all the business houses were properly decorated for the occasion. Each office in the splendid new court house was elegantly decorated.

The management of the Association deserve special mention for their untiring energies in getting the people here and arranging for their comfort.

The town authorities deserve much credit for their successful management of so large a crowd. During the whole three days and nights, with everything wide open, not a disturbance occurred.

The music furnished by the Sixth Regiment Band was fine. This is given up to be the best band in Southeast Missouri.

Everybody agrees that the Cape County Home-Coming was a grand success, with nothing to which to object but warm, dry weather. Some think August too hot, and that the meeting should be held later. This is a mistake. The Annual Home-Coming Reunion cannot be successfully held any other time but the last week in August. Hold it earlier, the farmers would be busy and could not come. Hold it later, the school children, teachers and others could not come. To hold it later would interfere with the trade of merchants and with preparations for fairs. The only thing in the way is a little warm weather, and we must try to get along with that. Remember, the Home-Coming is for but one paramount purpose—to meet old friends, tell them of the past and explain your future prospects, if you like. Any other notion that prompts you to attend the Home-Coming is secondary to the above.

Below is the list of prizes:

Oldest bachelor present and registering, Dr. J. A. Horn of Jackson; age 75 years, 8 months and 8 days. Pair of gold-rimmed eyeglasses.

Boy turning in largest number of paid-up memberships to the HomeComers' Association, Herman Ade. Gold medal.

Person coming longest distance on foot, G. H. Biddle of Laffin, Mo., who walked 22 miles to get here. Meerschmum pipe with gold trimmings.

Tallest man present and registering, H. G. Engelman of Oak Ridge, 6 feet, 9 1/2 inches. Gold-headed cane.

Tallest lady present and registering, Miss Effie M. Seabaugh of Bollinger county, 6 feet 3 inches. Gold-headed umbrella.

Person coming longest distance to Reunion, John W. Kelly of Vladimir, Siberia—traveled about six thousand miles. Sterling silver cup.

Oldest maiden lady present and registering, Miss Catherine Oats of Jackson, age 76 years. Pair of gold-rimmed eyeglasses.

Daisy News.

Health is tolerably good, considering the hot, dry weather.

Mr. William Ates is on the grunts since he returned from the Home-Coming meeting.

C. F. Hahs is cutting off corn, and Squire Hahs is attending to the store.

Peter Friese went to St. Louis with a car load of stock, cattle and hogs, Tuesday.

L. M. Bean got off the train here Tuesday and went to run off land.

There was a surprise wedding at Mr. D. R. Linebarger's August 26, Ova H. Wells and Miss Shaha Linebarger, Squire Hahs officiating, and he said that made the one hundred and tenth couple for him. It was to be a secret, though it wasn't. The news got out, and the neighbors went to work by a committee, and gathered in at 10:30 with baskets well filled with everything that was good to eat, and ninety-five persons ate dinner and had plenty left for supper. The men all had on white shirts except D. R. and N. C. Linebarger, who had on blue ones, and, of course, had to eat at the last table.

The blacksmiths are all busy setting wagon and buggy tires now.

Frank Horn, our head boss, is busy hauling gravel on the roads now, as the farmers can do nothing on their farms, as the corn is most too sappy to cut off.

A Tramp.

Pocahontas.

Aug. 22.—Dr. Walter Martin and wife, of Jonesboro, Ark., are here on a visit to parents and friends, and to take in the Home-Coming at Jackson.

Aug. Vogel and his son and daughter, of New Wells, were visitors of Henry Putz Sunday.

Herman Hattler, the road boss, is working out the poll-tax.

Dennis Martin was at the Cape Sunday to see somebody—somebody he says he likes better than himself.

Harry Cotner went to Appleton Sunday to see his better half.

Richard Petzoldt and wife, of Perry county, visited relatives here Thursday and Friday.

Arthur Kieninger and sister Lena departed Thursday for Hillsboro, Ind., to spend some time with relatives.

The young folks had a play party and watermelon supper at John Starzinger's Sunday.

Miss Della Sides and her brother and little sister, of Leemon, were pleasant guests of Mrs. Henry Putz Sunday.

M. F. Zorn was up from the Cape Sunday.

Mrs. John Schmidt and children, of Jonesboro, Ill., are visiting relatives and friends here.

Farmington Fair.

The First Annual Fair of the Southeast Missouri Fair Association will be held in Farmington October 12 to 16. The organization is made up of enterprising stockmen of Southeast Missouri.

It is not the purpose of the Association to hold simply a county fair, but it is desired to make it a district fair in every sense of the word.

The Association owns about 30 acres of land beautifully situated a quarter of a mile from the city limits of Farmington. This land has been improved for Fair purposes by the erection of an amphitheater and barns, and by making what is claimed to be the best race track in Southeast Missouri.

Nearly twenty-five hundred dollars is offered in premiums and purses. The running, pacing and trotting races will be a special feature of the Fair, nearly fifteen hundred dollars being offered as racing purses. Premiums have been offered in the departments as follows: Show horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry, mules, jacks and jennets, farm products, domestic products and many other miscellaneous and specials.

Farmington is one of the best towns in this district, and her citizens invite one and all to come and attend the Fair in October.

The Fair people promise that hotel and lodging house rates will be fixed in a satisfactory manner, and that everybody will get a square deal in every particular.

Any information that may be desired will be cheerfully furnished by the secretary, R. M. Talbert, Farmington, Missouri.
